Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*

Folklores Catchment: Talent Hunt for Sustainable Living, organized on 12th March 2022, at Bhalswa Dairy, was an engaging initiative by Tecnia Institute's Cultural Club to bring forth the hidden musical talents from rural areas. The primary aim of the event was to discover and promote folk singing talent in rural communities while preserving and celebrating their rich cultural heritage.

The event kicked off at 10:00 AM with an inaugural address by Mrs. Sonia Batra, emphasizing the importance of cultural outreach activities in empowering rural youth. The talent hunt witnessed an enthusiastic participation of many participants from the local rural areas. Their performances spanned various genres of folk music, representing their cultural backgrounds.

A significant highlight of the event was the participation of local folk music expert, who shared his knowledge on the evolution of regional music and its socio-cultural impact. He mentored the participants and provided valuable feedback to help them improve their vocal techniques and stage presence. The interaction between the expert and the participants created a learning environment where folk music traditions were shared, cherished, and refined.

In addition to the talent showcase, interactive sessions were held, focusing on traditional skills such as pottery, weaving, and organic farming. Local artisans and experts led these sessions, allowing participants to learn about sustainable practices rooted in cultural traditions. The workshops fostered hands-on experiences, connecting participants with the practical aspects of sustainability.

The event successfully fostered a sense of cultural pride among the participants, helping them realize the value of their musical heritage. The audience, which included faculty members and external participants, was captivated by the authentic folk performances. Several participants were recognized for their unique voices, traditional knowledge, and commitment to preserving their heritage. Winners were awarded certificates, and future opportunities for performances were discussed.
