Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*

On March 16, 2023, Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies organized a community initiative on "Power of Vote" in Nangli Poona. The event was a part of a broader initiative to promote voter education and encourage active participation in the democratic process among the residents of this locality. The primary objective of the campaign was to raise awareness about the significance of voting and to motivate the residents of Nangli Poona to exercise their right to vote. The event also aimed to educate the community on how voting empowers citizens to shape the future of their country. The activity began with an introduction to the concept of voting and its importance in a democratic society. A student volunteer emphasized how each vote contributes to the governance of the country and can lead to significant changes. The event concluded with a Q&A session where residents asked questions about voting procedures, the impact of their vote, and how to address any issues they might face on
